Unnat Bharat Abhiyan

Report on Awareness Program and Distribution of Sewing Machines Baba Farid Education Welfare Society (Regd.) Longowal, in collaboration with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, SLIET Longowal

27 October 2024

Baba Farid Education Welfare Society (Regd.) Longowal, in collaboration with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, SLIET Longowal, successfully organized an impactful awareness program that not only educated underprivileged girls from marginalized communities but also equipped them with the tools to become financially independent. The program included the distribution of sewing machines, aiming to promote skill development and empower these young women to start their own entrepreneurial ventures.

The event was graced by the Chief Guest Dr. Inderjit Kaur, President of the All India Pingalwara Charitable Society, Amritsar, whose presence added to the significance of the occasion. Dr. Pardeep Kumar Jain, Coordinator of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, SLIET Longowal, was the Guest of Honour, alongside the participation of Dr. Mandeep Ghai and Prof. Parveen Kaur Khanna from Unnat Bharat Abhiyan. Their collective efforts played a key role in the success of the event.

In his address, Prof. Pardeep Kumar Jain emphasized the transformative potential of skill development, particularly for young women looking to break free from cycles of poverty and dependency. He highlighted how acquiring skills not only opens up opportunities for employment but can also serve as a gateway to entrepreneurship. "With determination and skill, you can become successful entrepreneurs," Prof. Jain encouraged the participants, inspiring them to think beyond traditional job roles and embrace self-reliance.

The event culminated in the distribution of sewing machines, symbolizing a significant step toward empowerment. By providing these tools, the program
